Supplemental Conditions for Short Term Rentals are in chapter 8:1.23(AA) of the Unified Development Ordinance.

AA. Short-Term Rentals. Short-term rental of single-family dwellings, auxiliary dwelling units, seasonal homes, cabins, and individual dwelling units in multiple-family dwellings is an accessory use in the A, AR, SF, RS, RM, RC, and AG-T districts and are subject to Zoning Administrator approval and the following conditions:

1. Permits authorizing the use of a single-family dwelling, auxiliary dwelling unit, seasonal home, cabin, or individual dwelling unit in a multiple-family dwelling as a short-term rental are issued by the Zoning Administrator in accordance with subsection 8:1.26.
 - a. Permits shall expire two (2) years after issuance. At that time, the applicant shall apply for a new permit.
 - b. The Zoning Administrator may, if deemed necessary to protect the public health, safety, and welfare, attach special conditions to approval of a permit for short-term rental.
2. The single-family dwelling, seasonal home, cabin, or dwelling unit shall be rented out in its entirety and shall not be rented out on a room-to-room basis.
3. Off-street parking shall be provided in accordance with subsection 8:1.24.
4. All structures where the visiting public congregate shall comply with Building Code in Chapter 8:6.
5. The application shall comply with all Johnson County Public Health requirements and all other applicable federal, state, and local regulations.
6. The rental unit shall be managed as to protect the health, safety, and welfare of the renters and the public and preserve property values. It shall be managed in such a way that insures that the use does not become a nuisance. Improper management could result in permit denial or revocation.
7. Where the Board of Adjustment has approved a conditional use permit for operation of a Country Inn or Bed and Breakfast Home as defined and regulated by this ordinance, approval of a separate short term rental permit shall not be required.
